HCSO deputy resigns as agency Flock system audit concludes

A Hall County Sheriff's Office (HCSO) deputy has resigned while under investigation as part of the agency's audit of its Flock Safety system.

Brandon Sanders submitted his resignation Friday, Sep. 4, 2026. According to the investigation, Sanders used the Flock system on multiple occasions to search for various license plates while he was off duty. The searches were not authorized by HCSO. Sanders had been employed by HCSO since Dec. 2021.

The violations will be referred to the Georgia Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) Council for review.

HCSO's Internal Affairs (IA) Unit concluded its audit of the agency's Flock system on Sept. 4.
